

BRUCE TAMARKIN

SENIOR VICE PRESIDENT, PROPERTY MANAGEMENT

✉ BTAMARKIN@REDSTONEINVESTMENTS.COM

Bruce joined Redstone Investments in 1998 as the Vice President of Property Management. He is responsible for all aspects of property management, property maintenance, lease renewals, tenant billing and rent collections.

Before joining Redstone, Bruce worked as an agent for two years with the Edward J. Lewis Company, a full-service commercial real estate brokerage firm in Youngstown, Ohio. Bruce also spent nine years at Phar-Mor, Inc., a discount drugstore chain based in Youngstown, Ohio. His responsibilities included purchasing, new store set up, merchandising and store operations.

He currently serves on the Boards of the Youngstown Area Jewish Federation and Akiva Academy, a private elementary school, and is Chairman of the Youngstown Area Jewish Federation building committee.

Bruce and his wife Kelly have three sons, Tyler, Connor and Sam. He enjoys golfing, skiing and tennis.

EDUCATION

- Ithaca College, Bachelor of Science, Accounting

PROFESSIONAL AFFILIATIONS

- International Council of Shopping Centers (ICSC)